

23-26

Agriculture and animal husbandry

Technology definition	A technology that is required to understand the impacts of climate change on crops and livestock production as well as technologies that minimize adverse impacts such as reduced agricultural and livestock productivity by climate change
Keywords	Crop productivity, Chemical fertilizer / pesticide, Agricultural product postharvest / storage / distribution, Livestock management, Livestock byproducts / waste, Biotic and abiotic stresses, Genetic resource and genetic improvement, Agricultural biotechnology
Related sub-technology	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Genetic resources and genetic improvement2. Crop cultivation and production3. Livestock rearing management4. Processing/storage/distribution/consumption of agricultural and livestock products